

SSEN Transmission
Bingally 400 / 132 kV Substation
Environmental Appraisal
Volume 3
Appendix D

February 2025

APPENDIX D SITE PHOTOGRAPHS

Photograph 1: View of the eastern end of the existing access track to be upgraded, with views east along Strathglass.

Photograph 2: Views across the area of new road construction showing evidence of disturbance from commercial forestry operations.

Photograph 3: Area of woodland on the lower slopes of Carn na Beinne Bige through which the new access track will pass, facing west.

Photograph 4: View west along the area of new access track from the western end of Carn na Beinne Bige.

Photograph 5: General view east along the existing track to be upgraded near the central area of the Site.

Photograph 6: General view of the existing access track to be upgraded at the western end of the Site near the substation.

Photograph 7: General view of the substation area (left of image) and existing access track in the area, facing west.

Photograph 8: General view of the substation area (right of image) facing west.

Photograph 9: General view of the substation site showing disturbance from commercial forestry operations.

Photograph 10: General view of the substation site facing east along the route of the access track and the existing OHL.

Photograph 11: View of Coille an Tuathanaich township (MHG36650), with the existing OHL in the background. The Site is located behind the raised ground in the background.

Photograph 12: View of the boathouse (AECOM001) and memorial to Michael Alexander Waddell (AECOM002) on the western side of Loch a'Ghreidlein.

Photograph 13: View towards the memorial to the Tweedmouth Family on Beinn Mhor (AECOM003) from the west of Loch a'Ghraidlein.

Photograph 14: View of the memorial to the Tweedmouth Family on Beinn Mhor (AECOM003).