

Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA) Report

LT384 Tealing to Westfield Overhead Line (OHL) 400 kV Upgrade

November 2024

VOLUME 4: APPENDIX 5.1 - EIA TEAM

Table A5.1- 1 EIA Team

Role	Person	Expertise	Academic and Professional Qualifications
EIA Project Director (AECOM)	Zoe McClelland	18 years environmental consulting experience 16 years infrastructure EIA experience	MSc Urban and Regional MA (Hons) Geography Chartered Member Royal Town Planning Institute
EIA Project Manager (AECOM)	Siobhan Wolverson	13 years' experience in planning, EIA and project management	BA (Hons) Geography and Human Resource Management MSc Environmental Management Chartered Member Royal Town Planning Institute Practitioner - Institute of Environmental Management and Assessment
Landscape and Visual Lead (AECOM)	John Devenny	19 years' experience in Landscape and Visual Impact Assessment including for large-scale energy and infrastructure developments	MA (Hons) Landscape Architecture Chartered Member of the Landscape Institute
Ecology & Ornithology Lead (AECOM)	Tony Marshall	14 years ecological consulting experience, including large-scale EIA infrastructure developments	BSc (Hons) Biological Sciences (Ecology) Chartered Ecologist (CEcol) Full Member of the Chartered Institute of Ecology and Environmental Management (MCIEEM)
Forestry Lead (AECOM)	Euan Brierley	35 years' environmental land management experience, including 9 years consulting experience in forestry and arboriculture, providing EIA for large-scale developments	PhD Soil Science BSc Ecological Science with Forestry honours Chartered Member of the Institute of Chartered Foresters
Cultural Heritage Lead (AECOM)	Dr Jonathan Shipley	20 years' experience working in field archaeology and cultural heritage, including 15 years of consulting experience. Successfully lead on a large number of EIA projects covering infrastructure, renewable and residential developments.	PhD Archaeology MLitt Archaeology BA (Hons) Archaeology Associate Member of Chartered Institute for Archaeologists (CifA)

Role	Person	Expertise	Academic and Professional Qualifications
Traffic and Transport Lead (AECOM)	David Dewar	32 years' experience in transport assessment and the environmental assessment of traffic and movement	BEng (Hons) Civil Engineering MSc Transport Planning & Engineering Member of Chartered Institution of Highways and Transportation (MCIHT) Member of Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport (CMILT)
Hydrology and Hydrogeology Lead (AECOM)	Neil Mackenzie	33 years' experience, 19 years in consultancy. Many large scale EIAs for major infrastructure (road, rail and airport projects), renewables and quarrying projects	BSc Joint Hons Geography and Geology MSc Agricultural Engineering Chartered Geologist and Fellow of CIWEM
Geology Lead (AECOM)	David Raeside	27 years' experience in consultancy (many with peatlands). Leads a team delivering Ground Engineering solutions for Environment, Water and Energy projects.	B Eng (Hons) Civil Engineering with Geology
Noise and Vibration Lead (Wood)	Eric Donnelly	26 years' experience in planning, EIA and project management	BEng Hons Manufacturing Engineering Corporate Member Institute of Acoustics (IOA)
Cumulative Impacts Lead (AECOM)	Zoe McClelland	18 years environmental consulting experience 16 years infrastructure EIA experience	MSc Urban and Regional MA (Hons) Geography Chartered Member Royal Town Planning Institute